A fun-filled program for young actors

aged 10-18 that meets Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays for five weeks this summer. Classes include acting, improvisation, voice, speech, textual analysis, stage combat and more, and will culminate in a presentation (Saturday, August 8) of scenes from the plays of William Shakespeare. All classes are held at A Noise Within, 234 South Brand Blvd. in Glendale.

TWO OPTIONS:

The Full Day: 10am - 4pm, $750

Students experience all technique classes and rehearse scenes and monologues from Shakespeare for the final presentation.

Summer School Special: 1pm - 4pm, $600

Students enrolled in Summer School may join us in the afternoons for our exciting technique classes and present demonstrations at the final presentation.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: JUNE 8, 2009

REGISTRATION OPEN UNTIL FILLED

A Noise Within

is Southern California's award winning classical theatre company known for presenting first-rate productions of Shakespeare, Moliere, Shaw, Chekhov, and classic American playwrights, among others. It is one of only a handful of theatres on this continent with a resident acting company performing in rotating repertory. Concurrent with its performance activities, A Noise Within offers year-round classes, a highly successful Student Outreach Program and a Professional Internship Program. For more information about A Noise Within's education and outreach opportunities, contact the Education Director at 818.265.7961 or education@anoisewithin.org.
